Our School Board have ticketed the faculty for the coming winter. Prof. Ferguson has been re-elected Superintendent, with Miss Minetva Blain, of Greenfield, for the grammar, Miss Allie Kerns for the intermediate, and Miss Lenna Simpson for the primary department.

We have been wondering for some time why our single friend, Dittey, didn't increase himself by half and become a duet, but his editorial in last week's Gazette about Mormon editors clears up the mystery.

Bachelors may build about themselves barriers against the potent charms of the other sex, but, like Cleveland's, their barriers may Folsom time. We know this is inexcusable, and we really wish we had not done so, but the temptation was irresistible.

Miss Allie Kerns for the intermediate, and Miss Leuna Simpson for the primary department. Heretofore the salaries of the lady teachers lave varied as to their different positions, but for next winter they will be equal.

We have been too often questioned as to when we are to have our treat in the way of school commencement, and after an interview with Prof. Ferguson, we give our readers the program as near as can now be told. The sermon to the class of graduates will be delivered by Rev. J. S. Pumphrey, of New Yienna, on Sunday evening, May 23, at the M. E. Church. The commencement will take place in Town Hall, Wednesday evening, May 26, the program for which will be given you in the near future. The school will also give two entertainments on Thursday and Saturday evenings of the same week in Town Hall. Everybody is cordially invited.
